

BURLINGTON ROUTE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

MODEL DISPLAY RULES TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR BEST OF SHOW VOTING

All entrants must be members of the BRHS and registered for the meet.

(If the builder is not present at the meet the model will be in the Display Only area and are not eligible to be voted on.)

Any BRHS member may enter an unlimited number of entries in any scale. A separate contest entry form is required for each entry. Models must be of CB&Q, C&S, FW&D or other predecessor roads. Any entry submitted but not meeting the entry criteria may, at the discretion of the Contest Committee, be placed in an area set aside for display only. In the event of any question or dispute, the Contest Chair shall make the final decision.

1. Models may be of any type, construction, either kit-built or scratch-built, or any combination thereof. Models may be commercially manufactured, including imported brass models, which have been kitbashed, detailed, painted and/or decaled by the entrant. For commercially manufactured models the entrant must describe the work performed. MODELS MUST BE THE WORK OF THE ENTRANT.
2. Models will be placed on tables provided in the Contest Room. Additional data, information or photo of prototype may be placed in front of the model. The entry form contains space for data or information on the model. The entrant may bring the information pre-prepared on a card no larger than 8 ½" x 11" (standard paper size). Photos shall be no larger than 8" x 10" print size.
3. Only BRHS members who are registered participants of the Annual Meet are eligible to vote. Voting will be done by popular vote. Ballots will be furnished at the time designated by Model Contest Chairman.
4. Models will be assigned numbers at the time of entry and will be displayed in the Contest Room for the membership to view and vote upon by ballot. Models receiving the most Best of Show votes will receive the Best of Show Award.
5. A separate display area will be provided for members or guests wishing to display models, but not wishing to enter the Model Contest.
6. All models must be claimed by the registered owners at the time designated by the Model Contest Chair. The BRHS can assume no responsibility for unclaimed models.
7. The BRHS reserves the right to photograph the winning models and to publish such photographs in the BURLINGTON BULLETIN or ZEPHYR.
8. The BRHS and its Contest Officials will not be responsible for loss or damage to any model entered in the Contest.
